Issue date: 20 March 2019

President's message from Carol French: There is one word in my vocabulary that I prefer not to use and that is "problem". It has too many negative connotations and I prefer to think of any issues that confront us as being "challenges" to be met and resolved positively with goodwill and respect for opposing points of view. We all make mistakes from time and not everything we do as a Committee meets with universal support, but we act in what we believe is in the best interests of the Club. It needs to be remembered that we all volunteers who give of our time to do our best to promote "Fun, Friendship and Fellowship." The occasional "thank you" acknowledging our efforts is greatly appreciated.

March birthdays

We wish all the following members, good health and many Happy Birthdays: Marie Bolger; Pat Farrelly; Marie Keat; Dot La Canna; Ken Launder; Steve McColl; John Morgan; Ed Patrick; Gwen Secomb; Len Tolliday.

This month's speaker: Peter Ewers on "The making of a statue."

Next month's speaker: Anne Catchpole, from the Office of Community Relations of Cottage by the Sea, Queenscliff.
